

Warhammer 40,000 : Tournament 2010 Information Sheet

Who are We?

Morpeth Gaming Club is a wargaming club based in the North East of England. We play a wide selection of games, and welcome anyone from seasoned veteran's to total beginners.

Our members run numerous campaigns and leagues though out the year that anyone is welcome to join, and we try to make sure that everyone has at least one game every session.

The club has been running since late 2005, and we have numerous regular members and several regular visitors from other clubs in the area.

The Event

The Morpeth Gaming Club Warhammer 40,000 Tournament will take place on Sunday the 31st January 2010 at St. Georges Hospital Community Centre, Morpeth.

We will be playing 3x 1500pt games across out the day and at lunch time we will be supplying food for everyone.

We are aiming to make this a Fair, Friendly and Entertaining Tournament for everyone.

Army Lists must be sent to us for composition scoring at least 2 weeks prior to the event, no later then the 17th January 2010. Further details on how to find us and a copy of the tournament rules will be sent to confirmed entrants.

For more information on the event, please see <http://www.morpethgamingclub.org.uk/tournaments.php>
